What They Say.

John Barksdale says: "I am going to have my boots half-soled. I bought twelve months ago from Jno. M. Dickson and they will last me another winter."

Wm. M. Smith says: "Don't fail to get same boots as those I have on my feet now. I have worn them every day for twelve months and know they are all that is claimed for them. Call for a pair at Jno. M. Dickson's."

Steve Miller says he bought the best pair boots one year ago from Jno. M. Dickson. He never had, and wants another pair just like them. Call early, Steve, or they will be out.

This office is now prepared to do all kinds of job work neatly and quickly. Bring your work around and try us. We guarantee a neat job.

Go to S. M. Rhodes' Tin Shop and call for Good Tin Ware and you will get it.

SMALL CHANGE.

Pleasant weather this week.

Our merchants enjoyed a good trade this week.

A slight rain fell here last Wednesday night.

Mr. A. McDonald, is building a brick addition to his paint shop on Main street.

Mr. Jack Sikes is building a handsome brick residence in the eastern part of the city.

Madame Rumor says that there will be two weddings in this city before many days.

Milan cotton buyers have been paying good prices for cotton this week, and, as a consequence, a large quantity has been brought in.

Our city authorities had the Main street brick walk repaired lately, besides repairing and making new crossings on several other streets.

The building and loan association promises to be a grand success. Many shares have been subscribed for, and biddings for money will be lively.

We have heard it said by a great many people that the roads leading into Milan are in a better condition, for this season of the year, than was ever known before.

We understand that a number of our sportive inclined people will leave soon for the swamps and wilds of Arkansas to spend several weeks hunting deer and turkey.

Mr. Will Harais last Monday resigned the office of deputy sheriff, and Mr. W. O. Chapman was appointed in his place. His friends think that Ollie will make a first-class deputy, and we are among his friends.

Referring to the ad. of the National Fertilizer Co., to which the attention of farmers is again called this week, we specially recommend that they write for a copy of the Farmers' Guide, which will be sent to all applicants free.

Wallace Lusk has opened up a brand new saloon in the new brick on the corner of Main and Williamson streets, and invites everybody to go there for the finest liquors in town. He has furnished the house elegantly, and has one of the neatest places of the kind in town. If all his liquors are as fine as the bottle of champagne sent us, they must be extra.

We learn that some of the members of the different churches here never pay a cent toward the support of their preachers, and that the officials contemplate preferring charges against them, so that they may be expelled. This would certainly be proper. When a person joins a church, and is able to pay, he should be required to do so, or turned out. As Sam Jones says, they are not "fitten" to belong to the church.

Bro. Graham, pastor of the Methodist church, will preach his farewell sermon to-morrow morning and evening, and he wishes every member of the church to be present. On account of the long-protracted illness of himself and the loss of his wife by death during this year, he has been unable to do himself or his work justice. He has really not been able for duty many weeks since he came here; but he has preached faithfully, sometimes when he ought to have been in bed. His pastoral work has had as much attention as he could give it, and he has made many warm friends here. He is an educated, conscientious, hard working christian minister, and we trust his health will soon permit him to do full work in his calling. Wherever he may be sent by the conference, the prayers and good wishes of our people will follow him.

PERSONAL.

Hon. Sam B. Williamson was here yesterday.

Mrs. Smith, of Cairo, is visiting Mrs. Guion, of this city.

Mrs. John Reid, after spending several days here, returned to her home near McKenzie, this week.

Mrs. Crump, of Trenton, and Miss Eula Graves, of Brownsville, are visiting friends and relatives in this city.

Miss Maude Watkins, after spending several weeks visiting relatives in this city, left last Thursday for her home at Edyville, Ky.

Lexington Progress: Author Pearce has closed out his grocery since last issue, and yesterday, with his wife, left for Milan. Mr. Pearce thinks of emigrating to the far west.

Mr. A. H. Hanson, general passenger agent of the I. C. R. R., and Mr. J. F. Merry, general western passenger agent, were here several hours Thursday morning, en route to Memphis.

Lexington Progress: Mrs. Robinson and Miss Addie Ware are here and will make their home with their brother, Attorney W. B. Ware. The Progress trusts they may find Lexington a pleasant place of residence.

A party of gentlemen composed of Messrs. N. W. DeShong, W. N. Trimble, W. C. Creswell, Wils. Williamson and Wilson Sims went to Reelfoot Lake last Monday, where they'll spend several days hunting and fishing. Henry Hawkins, Pleas Bryant and "Dummy," all colored, went with the crowd.

Dresden Enterprise: Rev. J. D. Lewis, of Milan, preached at the C. P. Church here last Wednesday night. He is a plain, earnest, effective gospel preacher, and his sermons are favorably received here. The community would be pleased if the C. P. congregation would engage him to preach here regularly.

"Mr. Speaker Manson," of Saulsbury, dropped in on us a few minutes last Tuesday. He is now a U. S. deputy collector, and came here to advertise the Staten land, about three miles east of town. This land will be sold by the government to the highest bidder, and there is a chance for a bargain. See ad. in another column.

MILAN PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

To the Secretary of the Board of Education, Milan, Tenn.:

This, the second month, ending Nov. 5th, shows the record of enrollment, belonging and attendance to have been as follows:

ENROLLMENT.

" II.	14	18	32
" III.	23	18	41
" IV.	22	23	45
" V.	9	13	22
" VI.	8	11	19

" VI.	8	11	19
" VII.	7	15	22
" VIII.	5	8	13
" IX.	6	5	11
	112	144	256

This shows an attendance of about 92 per cent. on the enrollment, and a fraction over 97 per cent. on the number actually belonging to date. This is against the same month of last year, (the largest reported) which was 85 per cent. shows a gain of 7 per cent. on the enrollment, and of nearly 13 per cent. on the belonging.

TARDIES.

	Boys.	Girls.	Total.
" II.	0	2	2
" III.	0	2	2
" V.	0	0	0
" VI.	2	1	3
" VIII.	0	0	0
" IX.	1	0	1
	5	5	10

This is five less than last month, and for the two months of this year twenty-five, which, as compared with the first two months of last year, which amounted to one hundred and forty-one, denotes a gain which the mere statistics can hardly express.

ATTENDANCE.

The whole number in all the grades who have neither been absent nor tardy the past month is one hundred and seventy-seven.

Respectfully,

C. TH. KELLOGG, Sup't.

The four anarchists, Spies, Parsons, Engel and Fisher were hung yesterday at 11:54 o'clock. No disturbance was made. Schwab and Fielden's sentence was committed to a life imprisonment in the penitentiary. Louis Lingg, the bomb-maker, on Thursday morning committed suicide by placing a bomb in his mouth, which tore the lower part of his face into shreds of tangled flesh. He lived six hours in mortal agony.

Murfreesboro suffered her regular loss by fire last Monday night—five or six business houses burned. Loss about $50,000. Insured, of course. That town has an average of about one fire each week now.

A New Factory.

Mr. Ackerman, of Indiana, who has been here several days prospecting, has concluded that Milan is the best point he knows of for the erection of a factory to make ax-handles, and all other kinds of handles, and he has leased the Driggers lot, on the L. & N. road, near the compress, where he will erect buildings and put in his machinery as soon as he can get it here. He appears to be a live, energetic man, and will give employment to quite a number of workmen in his shops and in the woods. There are thousands of hickory trees within a few miles of Milan, and he will go to work especially on them. By this means he will distribute much money among our people and do a great deal to develop our resources. We welcome him and his enterprise to our town, and hope he may be pleased and prosperous. We have room for more people of his kind here, and will gladly welcome them.

The elections last Tuesday resulted in a democratic victory in New York and Virginia, with gains in Pennsylvania and Iowa. Of course the republicans carried Ohio. Election were held in other states, but the result was not of much general interest. Taken altogether, the republicans are very gloomy over the prospects for next year, and the democrats are correspondingly elated. It is conceded that Blaine is not the man to put up against Cleveland, and it is thought that John Sherman is the coming man to be defeated by the democrats.

Last Tuesday morning the body of Armstead Campbell, an old colored man was found about three and one-half miles southeast of this city, in a thicket hanging by the neck, where he had evidently committed suicide, as his boots were found close by and there were no evidence of a struggle. He had been missing two or three days and was being searched for when found.—Jackson Dispatch

New Grocery Firm.

I have just bought out Martin & Dawson's stock of Groceries, and have added a new fresh stock to the large line which they carried, all of which I will sell as cheap as can be bought anywhere in West Tennessee. I will be glad to see my friends and everybody else who wishes bargains in groceries.
S. D. HUTCHINSON.
